

All Fired Up & Kicking Ash BBQ Competition

Saturday September 25 in Emporium

Official Rules

1. The decision and interpretations of the rules and regulation are at the discretion of the Cameron County Chamber of Commerce.
2. Each team shall consist of a chief cook and as many assistants as the chief cook deems necessary. Chief cooks and/or assistant cooks may only cook for their designated team.
3. Each team/individual will be assigned a cooking space. Cookers, props, trailers, tents or any other equipment shall not exceed the boundaries of the teams' assigned cooking space. All seasoning and cooking of product shall be done within the assigned cooking space. Teams shall not share an assigned cooking space or cooking device.
4. Contestants shall provide all needed equipment, and supplies except as arranged for in advance. Contestants must adhere to all electrical, fire and other codes. A fire extinguisher shall be near all cooking devices.
5. It is the responsibility of the contestant to see that the teams/individual cooking space is clean and orderly following the contest. All fires must be put out, and all equipment removed from site. All garbage must be placed in dumpsters. It is imperative that clean-up be thorough. Any team's assigned cooking space left in disarray or with loose trash, other than at dumpster may disqualify the team from future participation at Cameron County Chamber of Commerce events.
6. Fires shall be of wood pellet, wood or charcoal. Propane or electric is permitted as fire starters provided that the competition meat is not in/on the cooking device. Electrical accessories such as spits, augers or forced draft are permitted. No open pits or holes are permitted. Fires shall not be built on the ground.
7. All competition meats shall be inspected by the Official Meat Inspector during the times established by the Cameron County Chamber of Commerce. Once the competition meat has been inspected, it shall not leave the contest site. Cooking shall not begin until the competition meat has been inspected by the Official Meat Inspector. All competition meat shall start out raw. No pre-seasoned meat is allowed. Competition meat not meeting these qualifications shall be disqualified; given a one (1) in all criteria by all five judges.
8. Meat shall not be sculptured, branded or presented in a way to make it identifiable. Rosettes of meat slices are not allowed. Violations of this rule will be scored a one (1) on all criteria by all five judges.
9. The completion categories:
 - Chicken: Chicken is limited to wings
 - Pork Ribs: Ribs shall include the bone. Country style ribs are prohibited.
 - Pork: Pork is defined as Boston Butt, Boston Roast, Picnic and/or Whole Shoulder weighing a minimum of four (4) pounds at inspection. After trimming, pork shall be cooked whole (bone in or bone out), however, once cooked it may be separated and returned to the cooker at the cook's discretion. It may be turned in chopped, pulled, chunked, sliced or a combination of any of those.
 - Beef Brisket: May be whole brisket, flat or point. Corned beef is not allowed.
 - Turkey: May be whole or in part such as legs or breast.
 - Sides: No limit to variation, must have a cooked component.
 - Deserts: No limit to variation, must have a cooked component.
 - Mystery Meat: This is an additional category which must be selected and paid for with registration. All rules for competition are applied to this category. The item will be given to competitors at 9pm Friday.
